9 CASE MANAGEMENT AND SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE REPORT

10 At the Case Management and Settlement Conference held today, the parties were 11 represented by Counsel Miguel Miranda Gutiérrez, Arturo Luciano, and Assistant U.S.
12 Attorney Fidel Sevillano-Del-Río.

13 Counsel for the defendants informed that they did not receive the order for the 14 conference set for February 12, 2001.

15 Having heard the parties regarding their absence, the excuses given are accepted.
16 No sanctions will be imposed.

17 Attached to this report is the Joint Memorandum requested by this magistrate
18 regarding discovery and pending matters.

19 The transcript of the hearing held before Judge Laffitte on April 14, 1999, is expected
20 to be delivered not later than March 2, 2001.

21 The parties expect that once the transcript is reviewed, the court will be placed in 22 better position to understand Judge Laffitte's order of April 14, 1999, regarding the 23 proceedings to be followed in this case. Defendants are of the opinion that said order

1 should not be interpreted as an opportunity for plaintiff to start with the discovery.

2 Defendants has opposed to any request for the reopening of the discovery in this case.

3 On the other hand, plaintiff believes that in fact he is entitled to conduct discovery.

4 Nevertheless, it is recommended that all dispositive motions be entertained by the court

5 before any ruling on the discovery issues is entered.

6 Defendant's counsel for American Postal Workers Union was granted a final extension

7 of ten (10) days to file his opposition to plaintiff's motion of Summary Judgment. The record

8 should reflect that plaintiff's counsel has opposed to this extension and has taken

9 exception to this magistrate's ruling.
